Interiors Lay in Boozie Stock to Guard Against Winter Depletion.

Interior residents of Yukon Territory are fortifying themselves against the possibility of a long "dry spell" during the period of closed navigation on its waterways if the freight cars of the Canadian steamers mean anything. Recently several of the ships have carried large quantities of liquor to Skagway destined to the interior.

The latest of these was on the Princess Alice last Saturday. It comprised 450 cases of assorted liquors. The consignment was for Government vendors in the Yukon. Last year the Government supplies ran low at a few places, some articles of drinks being exhausted before permits could be obtained to ship in new stocks through American Territory.

PACKER UNION RULED LEGAL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22. — The gigantic merger of the Armour and Morris Packing companies, which has been pending for more than a year awaiting federal approval, and which involved millions of dollars, was in effect approved by Secretary of Agriculture Jardine in a ruling handed down.

Jardine dismissed the complaint against the merger "without prejudice" and in an accompanying opinion said that "the acquisition by Armour and Company of the physical properties, business and good will of the Morris company, does not in itself constitute a violation of the federal law."

This statement, however, was accompanied by a significant warning that if in this merger, either of the companies violate the packers' control law Jardine will take the necessary action.

FEEDS AND DOCTORS PIGEONS AS HOBBY

CHICAGO, Sept. 22. — Feeding peanuts to pigeons in Grant Park on busy Michigan boulevard costs him approximately $150 a year, but to Harry J. Lane, the benefactor, it is a small item in his recipe for kindness.

Four or five times daily Mr. Lane, who is Treasurer of the Orchestra Hall Association in a skyscraper overlooking the Park, crosses the avenue with bulging pockets of peanuts to ration the birds, many of them of his years' acquaintance. His specialities excites a winged offensive.

Mr. Lane carries a knife with a small sharp blade which, as the birds feed, he uses in removing strings entangled in their feet and to perform any small bit of surgery. Wherever he travels Mr. Lane feeds pigeons in the parks. He is never feared, whether friend or stranger.

The city allows feed for the pigeons, but frequently the caretaker is absent. Mr. Lane fills the breach as provider.

RADICAL BACK TO JAPAN TO FACE CHARGES

Gaku Sano Has Returned to Tokyo and Surrendered to Authorities.

TOKYO, Sept. 22.—After fleeing from Japan to Russia two years ago at the time the Police of Tokyo were arresting large numbers of so-called radicals, Gaku Sano, former Waseda University professor and one of the leading socialists of the country, has returned and surrendered to the authorities for trial.

Mr. Sano made the long journey from Moscow to Tokyo by way of Peking and Shanghai, unrecognized by the police who had sought him since May, 1923. As soon as he entered Tokyo he went at once to the office of his lawyer and friend, Kesa Yamasaki, at Shinsakuragicho Shiba, and later to the Tokyo district Court where he met Procurator Kuroda, in charge of his case, to offer an apology for his escape.

He asked the procurator to include him among the Socialists whose trials are to come up soon. Upon examination at the office of the procurator Mr. Sano gave some of the details of his escape. He went from Tokyo to Peking, he said, and stayed there a week during which time he obtained permission and credentials for entering Russia. From Peking he proceeded directly to Moscow, without trouble, and there became a student at the Marx-Engels Institute. Mr. Sano declared that he stayed at the institute until the end of 1924 helping Professor Lizaroff, the celebrated Marican student publish a collection of Marx doctrines and economic theories. He was in Moscow at the time of the death of Lenin and was one of the few Japanese attendants at the impressive funeral services. Later he took the chair of Japanese in the language departments of several Russian colleges.

ATTENDANCE IN INDIAN SCHOOLS BEING FORCED

Officials in S. E. District Co-operate Says Superintendent Hawkesworth.

Regular attendance of students in the Indian Schools conducted under the U. S. Bureau of Education in Alaska is being forced by the authorities who are working in co-operation with Charles W. Hawkesworth, superintendent in this district, this school year with the result that the regular attendance will be at least 95 per cent after October 1. This is according to Mr. Hawkesworth who returned to his headquarters in Juneau last night on the steamer Jefferson after a trip of inspection of schools.

In Ketchikan the school attendance is being strongly stressed and recently an Indian father who did not send his children to school was placed under arrest and forced to attend to the matter, Mr. Hawkesworth said. In the Indian villages also, according to the superintendent, the town councils are forcing the attendance of the children in the schools.

This year there are 17 Indian schools being conducted in the Southeastern Alaska district, which is the same number as was conducted in 1924-25. At Metlakatla there is a high school through the eleventh grade. Thirty-eight teachers are employed.

An important feature of the teaching staff this year, pointed out Mr. Hawkesworth, is that seven of the teachers are Indians who have received at least a part of their education in Alaska schools.

The enrollment in the schools will not be known until the first of October.

The teachers in the schools this year are as follows:

Metlakatla, W. F. Parrish, principal; William Beck, Cleo Campbell, Marietta Benson (Indian), Laura Hudson (Indian), David Leask (Indian). Saxman—Louise E. Ballard. Ketchikan—M. C. Holman, principal; Beulah D. Berg.

Hydaburg—Charles R. Smith, principal; Lois T. Smith, Agnes H. Vick, Gideon Duncan (Indian). Klawock—Frank H. Clark, principal; Phoebe Clark, Dula Knight, Beatrice Mumford.

Wrangell—Nellie Hagerty. Petersburg—Louis F. Paul (Indian). Kake—Walter L. Gross, principal; Dora E. Gross, Pauline S. Talmadge, Amy Davis (Indian). Juneau—Helen G. Bernhofer, principal; May W. Lamb.

GEORGE COTTER IS DEAD, SAN FRANCISCO

Word has been received at Juneau of the recent death at San Francisco of George Cotter, pioneer of the Interior and Seward, who not long ago resigned as Game Warden for the Third Division. His wife, formerly Mrs. Helen Van Campen, author and journalist, was with him when the end came. Physicians say death was caused by rupture of the heart.

Mr. Cotter went to Texas after leaving Alaska, it is said, made a fortune there operating in oil. Over work and hot weather caused a break-down and he had gone to San Francisco for a vacation. He was a brother of Frank Cotter and served in the aviation corps in France during the World War.
